

"Lincoln Is World-Wide Symbol Of Freedom" Declares Secretary Of State

WAR JUSTIFIED IN "ADDRESS" HERE IN 1863, SPEAKER SAYS

Lincoln's Gettysburg Address was described Sunday evening as the author's "most careful and conscious statement of his political philosophy," by Dr. David Donald, professor of history at Johns Hopkins University.

Prof. Donald delivered the Robert Fortenbaugh memorial lecture at Gettysburg College's seventh annual Civil War conference session in Christ Chapel. His theme was "Abraham Lincoln and American Nationalism."

Speaking in a setting of Civil War songs provided by the Gettysburg College Choir under the direction of Prof. Parker B. Wagstaff, the Mississippi-born speaker said:

"The Gettysburg Address, born of the President's need to explain his purposes to the nation and of his need to settle his own unstated doubts, was Lincoln's most careful and conscious statement of his political philosophy . . . at Gettysburg he justified both to his people and to himself, the war as a struggle for equality, democracy and nationalism."

CHOIR CONCERT

Christ Chapel was nearly filled for the program at which Dr. Robert Bloom of the history department of Gettysburg College presided. The choir's concert of Civil War songs included "We Are Coming Father Abraham," "Tenting Tonight," "Goober Peas," "Listen to the Mocking Bird," "Home, Sweet Home," "Darling Nellie Gray" and concluded with the favorite "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

The soloists were James Meyers and David Greenlund. Edward M. Andrews was the accordionist, Eugene Cotton played the bass viol and David Armor the guitar as the choir's accompaniment.

READS ADDRESS

A Gettysburg College Sophomore, George Muschamp, gave a reading of the Gettysburg Address before Dr. Donald was presented for his third appearance at a Civil War conference at the college. Dr. Donald helped initiate the conferences six years ago and returned the next year. He spoke Sunday evening despite a severe cold.

Prof. Donald noted at the outset of his address that "the historian can face no greater challenge than to try to think afresh about a very familiar document, like Abraham's Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. The words are too

The president, an admirer of Nasser, said he would cooperate closely with all Arab nations, "especially with the United Arab Republic."

REMEMBRANCE DAY PROGRAM HELD SATURDAY

Several hundred persons braved the chill winds at Ziegler's Woods near the Visitor Center Saturday afternoon to witness the seventh annual Remembrance Day program of allied units of the Grand Army of the Republic at the GAR monument.

The GAR ceased to be in 1956 with the death of the last survivor, Albert Woolson, who died in Duluth, Minn., at the age of 109. The program was held at the heroic-size monument of Woolson placed in Gettysburg by the National Auxiliary of the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War in tribute to the men who comprised the GAR.

The Rev. Fr. Joseph P. Kealy, pastor of St. Francis Xavier Church, delivered the opening bazaar of its kind held at the Fairfield church.

Refugee-Aid Gift Bazaar Nets $1,000

About $1,000 worth of gifts, made by skilled craftsmen in refugee camps in distant parts of the world, were sold Thursday at the gift bazaar conducted in the Fairfield Mennonite Church and at the international festival held by the YWCA Saturday in the Hotel Gettysburg pressroom.

In addition to the outright sales, orders totaling $200 to $300 were taken for future delivery.

All of the proceeds of the bazaar will go back into the refugee self-help program where the cash will be converted into materials with which the refugees may produce new items for sale. Most of the gift items for the bazaar came through the Mennonite Central Committee.

This was the second annual bazaar of its kind held at the Fairfield church.

LINCOLN IS EXOLLED BY IOWA SOLON

"The literature of Gettysburg and the Address we commemorate today has in it, not only for us but for the whole human race everywhere on this planet, something of a quality that touches all of us."

"In whatever condition, it touches us at the noblest side of our nature. It is my belief that this is an essential secret. I dare, with reverence and humility, to equate it with the tone, the style, the inner nature and the all-encompassing compassion of the Lord's Prayer."

Thus spoke Congressman Fred D. Schwengel, of the First Iowa District, in his address at the 33rd annual banquet of the Past Commanders and Past Presidents Association of the Sons of Union Veterans in the Hotel Gettysburg Saturday night.

RECEPTION, DANCE

The dinner was in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the dedication of the Gettysburg National Cemetery.

A reception and dance in honor of John H. Stark, of Long Island, N. Y., commander of the Department of Pennsylvania, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, followed at which he was presented gifts from Gettysburg Camp No. 112, SUV, Gettysburg Auxiliary No. 27, SUV, Salome M. Stewart Tent No. 55, DUV, and the Ladies of the GAR, Circle No. 27.

Speaking of efforts to have the Catholic War Veterans organization receive a congressional charter similar to that given other veterans organizations, National Commander Hyle said the bill granting the charter passed the U.S. Senate by a vote of 65 to 10 and is now in the House Judiciary Committee. He urged all CWV members to write Congressman Emmanuel Seller, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, and to their own congressman, asking that the charter bill be reported favorably out of committee for vote by the House.

STATE COMMANDER THERE He also discussed the bill now being considered in Congress for a constitutional change permitting use of prayer in the public schools. He encouraged the members to write their congressmen of their approval of the bill.

MISS SILLIK IS BRIDE OF W. W. FISSEL

"The most obvious observation made about the phrases of Lincoln scattered over this blood-drenched field a century ago," continued Mr. Schwengel, "is their affinity with Holy Writ: 'these honored dead' . . . the last full measure of devotion' . . . 'shall not have died in vain' . . ."

PRAYERFUL LINES

"I ask," he pleaded, "with all the reverence I can bring to bear upon this humbly offered comparison, do not these words, in their rhythm, their sublime simplicity, their compactness, their infinite music, the richness and their solace and dedication, have a kinship that is mystical and enduring with the most prayerful lines in Biblical literature?"

FIREMEN FIND LOST TODDLER

Gettysburg firemen rescued a lost boy this morning and returned to the engine house in time to respond to a grass fire near where they had been searching for the boy.

The youngster was 1½-year-old Christopher Ingram, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ingram, who had wandered away from his home about three miles west of here along the Fairfield Rd., earlier this morning. His parents had hunted him but at 11:24 this morning they ask assistance. The firemen located the youngster about a half mile from his home caught in a split tree and unable to get loose. He had apparently tried to climb up into the tree and became trapped. It was not known how long he might have been in that predicament.

The firemen returned to the engine house at 11:57 when they were called to a grass fire threatening a chicken house at the property of Fred Trimmer about two miles west along the Fairfield Rd. They quickly extinguished that blaze.

Larry E. Knipple, Gettysburg R. 2, police said, lost control of his auto at the Carlisle and Water Sts. intersection at 2:10 Sunday morning and the car went up on the sidewalk and bent over a street sign. Damage to the car was estimated at $50.

Sunday morning at 4 o'clock an auto being driven by Raymond V. Stevens, 56, Chambersburg, while going east on the first block of Chambersburg St., went up on the curb, and hit a light standard, breaking it off, knocking it off its base and breaking the lamp at the top of the standard. A parking meter was also bent. Damage to the car was listed as $75. Stevens was placed in jail in default of bail following the accident. At 2:20 Sunday afternoon he pleaded guilty to the charge before Justice of the Peace Anna Thompson and paid all but $2 of the fine and costs. He was then released on promise to send the $2 to the justice.

SWORN TO SECRECY

"I am sworn to secrecy," he said somewhat regretfully in an interview.

Boon often talks at great length with the three Nazis. "When they come to me with ailments, they sit and talk. They tell me of their problems and their troubles."

"I suppose I know more about them than the prison officials know and I wish sometimes I could talk about it," said the 51-year-old Dutchman.

Boon spends an average of eight hours a day at the prison. "But I am always on call. If I visit some friends, I always have to beg them to stay. And I couldn't leave the sick who needed help."

NO GERMANS WORK THERE

The first of the top war criminals were brought to Spandau in 1946 and the Allies asked Boon to work in the prison. Regulations prohibit any German from working inside the huge, red brick building.

Does he get called to the prison at night? "Sure," said Boon. "If one of them has a bellyache I have to go in."

Besides taking care of the Nazis' minor aches and pains, Boon also cuts their hair.

POSTPONE MEETING

The meeting of the Gettysburg High School Band Parents' organization, scheduled for this evening, has been postponed until next Monday evening at the senior building. Band Director Kenneth Hays announced today. The change was made because of the current Lincoln speech centennial observance.

He explained that the treatment of the prisoners varies with which nation is guarding them.

"It seems to me that the various nations treat the prisoners exactly the way they would treat prisoners in their own country," Boon said. "The treatment is never bad but it is different."

Doctors taking care of the prisoners change with the guards. Is there any difference in treatment by the doctors of the four nations?

"Please do not misunderstand me, but I can not talk about that."

How does Boon feel nursing the men who were responsible for his ill treatment during World War II? Does he carry a grudge against them? Does he hate them?

"I am not a man who hates,"

COWS SET NEW PRODUCTION RECORD IN '63

Adams County cows produced, on average, 656 pounds more pounds of milk and 19 pounds more butterfat during 1963 than they did in 1962, according to reports presented Saturday afternoon at the annual banquet meeting of the Adams County Dairy Herd Improvement Association at Grace Lutheran Parish Hall, Two Taverns.

The record as presented by Mervin Myers, Littlestown R. 2, showed fewer cows on test than in any year since 1959, but the production records went soaring. Where last year 1,332 cows were on test and averaged 11,253 pounds of milk and 465 pounds of butterfat, in 1963 the 1,281 cows on test provided an average of 11,800 pounds of milk and 475 pounds of butterfat.

The growth of the dairy industry in Adams County was illustrated by the five-year records for the 35 years of testing. In 1928-1932 there were 217.55 cows on test, and their average production per cow was 8,588 pounds of milk and 303.3 pounds of butterfat. The report, by five-year periods, shows steady growth, with advancement in numbers of cows and production per cow each five-year period. In 1959 the number of cows on test went over the 1,000 mark for the first time and the average production per cow for the first time went over the 10,000-pound mark and the butterfat production over the 400-pound mark per cow. Last year, the average production per cow for the first time went over 11,000 pounds of milk and 450 pounds of butterfat.

PRICE SQUEEZE SHOWN

While production per cow increased, the price squeeze produced by dry weather which boosted costs of feed is reflected in the figures which showed the cost of feed up from an average of $288 per cow in 1962 to $310 per cow in 1963. As a result, the value of produce above feed cost dropped from $239 in 1962 to $258 in 1963.

7 DIRECTORS NAMED

Seven directors were elected: Paul Fissel, Biglerville R. D.; Adam Lobough, Aspers R. D., and Robert Whiteford, New Oxford R. D., from Circuit 1; Mervin Myers, Littlestown R. D.; Wade Brown, Littlestown R. D., and Glenn Stern, Gettysburg R. D., from Circuit II and Joseph Stoner, East Berlin R. D., at large.

Associate County Farm Agent Duane Duncan presented the 600-pound herd award to "Lu Pa Green Acres" owned by Paul and Lucille Fissel, Biglerville R. 1. The 25 cows in the herd produced on an average 18,733 pounds of milk and 682 pounds of butterfat. It was the top herd in production and the only one to exceed the 600 pounds of butterfat average in the county.

The other high herd awards presented by Stuart Leubaugh, went to Joseph Stoner, East Berlin R. 2, whose 43 cows produced an average of 14,015 pounds of milk and 574 pounds of butterfat; J. "WEAL OR WOE"

The choice is squarely up to us . . . the way is ours to choose . . . we can walk with winners . . . or we can stand to lose . . . at a very early age . . . we learn of right and wrong . . . if we take the righteous road . . . we'll sing a joyful song . . . but if we choose the path to wrong . . . we'll tread a rocky road . . . aching from the pressures . . . bending 'neath the load . . . very often we will find the righteous way is tough . . . but we can be successful if . . . we persevere enough . . . so it is and always will be . . . this one thing I know . . . the choice is squarely up to us . . . will it be weal or woe?

butterfat, and Mervin K. Myers, Littlestown R. 2, whose 22 cows produced on an average 10,507 pounds of milk and 554 pounds of butterfat.

INDIVIDUAL HONORS

Cows in the Fissel "Lu Pa Green Acres" Holstein herd won the high individual production awards. "Star" received the award for top butterfat production, with 914 pounds. She also produced 23,731 pounds of milk. Of the 10 high cows in butterfat six were from the "Lu Pa Green Acres" herd. The other four were in the herds of Lester Van Arsdale, Biglerville R. 2, which came in fifth; Joseph Stoner, East Berlin R. 2, which came in seventh; Andrew Martin, Gettysburg R. 5, ninth and Joseph Stoner, East Berlin R. 2, tenth.

NEARLY CLEAN SWEEP

The "Lu Pa Green Acres" farm also made almost a clean sweep in milk production. Of the top 10, the first seven places went to the Fissel farm. A Holstein in the Oscar Winters herd, Hanover R. 5, was eighth; a Holstein from the Melvin Starner herd, New Oxford R. 1, ninth, and a Holstein from the R. W. and M. R. Durbow herd, Gettysburg R. 1, 10th. The top milk producer in the county was "Anna" of the Lu Pa herd, with a record of 26,136 pounds of milk and 810 of butterfat. The lowest production among the top 10 was 20,384 pounds of milk.

Lobough also presented the award for the herd with the greatest increase in butterfat during the year. The 54 cows in the herd of Melvin Starner, New Oxford R. D., won the award with an average of 513 pounds of fat in 1963, or 102 pounds per cow above their 411-pound record in 1962.

Nine herds in all showed an increase of 50 pounds or more butterfat production per cow during the last year. The other herds and amount increase per cow included Paul Spicer, 97; Stuart Lubacbaugh, 79; Mrs. C. W. Patton, 75; Robert Leer, 74; Joseph Stoner, 73; William Hall, 64; Guy Tanger, 63; Frank Maserne, 58.

RED'S TRADE, AID PROGRAM DISAPPOINTING

By STERLING F. GREEN
AP Economics Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Russian trade-and-aid offensive, launched a decade ago to try to sweep new and neutral nations into the Communist camp, is a growing disappointment to the Kremlin.

Even in Moscow confidence has dimmed, American government analysts report, that the emerging countries of Africa and Asia soon will reject capitalism in a great "national-liberation movement."

And comparisons of 1962 trade data now available confirm that Russia remains a puny commercial rival of the United States in all but a few limited areas of the non-Communist world.

BURY U.S.

Two-thirds of Russia's trade continues to be with its captive market, the Communist block in Europe, but its goal of "burying" the United States as the foremost trading nation depends on the penetration of the vast and swiftly growing Western markets and the developing nations.

Russian progress has been substantial, considering that the Soviets started virtually from scratch. But Washington's concern is less with the trade volume — as an entire bloc the Communist group generates only 5 per cent of world commerce — than with the political and propaganda impact of the Soviet economic warfare.

GET MORE MILEAGE

Officials suspect that Russia gets more political mileage per ruble of foreign aid than the United States gets per dollar. Soviet aid programs are inexpensive, shrewdly aimed at the West's worst trouble spots, designed for maximum pay-off in political or military advantage and magnified by adroit propaganda techniques.

But analysts who advise the State Department and Congress now note rising skepticism toward the Marxist promise even in the under-developed lands where Russia has poured out Rubles and promises.

U.S. expert, Leon Herman, Soviet economic analyst for the Library of Congress, told an interviewer that Russian leaders "realize matters are less promising than they had hoped," but have not altered their plans or diminished their efforts.

"They feel they can create hostility for the developed countries among the underdeveloped — can convince them that they are the victims of capitalist exploitation," Herman explained.

Noel Will Filed For Probate Here

Stoner herd, East Berlin R. 2; four to the herd of Andrew Martin, Gettysburg R. 5; three to the herd of Glenn Sterner and Son, Gettysburg R. 1; three to the herd of Wade Brown, Littlestown R. 1; five to the herd of John D. Charges To Follow Fairfield Accident

Two young men will face charges as a result of a crash in Fairfield this morning at 5:30 o'clock when damage totaled $175 but no one was injured. Police Chief W. L. Fleming investigated and will file the charges before Justice of the Peace James Weikert, Fairfield.

Fleming reported an auto operated by Robert L. Cool, Fairfield R. D., crossed the highway and struck a porch at the Fairfield Hotel, damaging a porch post and smashing a telephone booth.

Cool will be charged with driving a car without an operator's license and his companion, Kenneth D. Matthews, 28, Orrtanna R. 1, with permitting an unlicensed operator to drive the car.

Chief Fleming said the car is owned by Jean C. Roberson, New Windsor, Md.

Damage to the porch was placed at $75 and to the phone booth at $100 or more. No damage was reported to the car.

The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

On Saturday afternoon last, the beautiful pole purchased by the Ladies of Gettysburg, was raised in the Centre Square, and the splendid Flag and Streamer floated for a few minutes in the breeze. Darkness and rain came on about the time it was completed and the crowd repaired to the Court-house to hear the address of Professor Muhlenberg. It was an eloquent, heart-stirring speech, worthy of the patriotic and gentlemanly Professor — and was most enthusiastically cheered. The pole is over 100 feet high and is a very handsome one. Long may that star-spangled banner wave o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave. The Ladies of Gettysburg deserve great credit for their perseverance in getting up so beautiful an article. A beautiful pole was also raised in the National Cemetery grounds yesterday, near the stand prepared for the world-renowned orator, Hon. Edward Everett, who will be present to deliver the Dedicatory Address. We have not a doubt that our town will be honored with the attendance of many high dignitaries on this interesting occasion — indeed we know of several Cabinet officers, and Governor of States, who will be here.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Gossip has it on the best authority that Pennsylvania gave the National Republican committee more money than all of the other States combined, and that the raising of this vast sum was mainly the work of two — John Wanamaker and Thomas Dolan, of Philadelphia. Pennsylvania is the greatest Republican State in the Union. Besides the money she poured out for Republican success, she gave the biggest Republican majority of any State in the Union. There's glory all over the old Keystone State and there isn't anything too good for her at Washington.

Today's TalkNEW TRADITIONS

There is nothing quite so sacred as a tradition. I am no believer in disturbing them. They are monuments to make us think, make us feel, and make us appreciate. Our task is to honor them, not to let them stand without a sense of understanding as they affect our own lives and our own aspirations.

Traditions are created by men. They are symbolic, as well. We can carry them around in our hearts. They heat our enthusiasm. Thus are traditions born within ourselves. Thus are we confronted with the problems of handling life as it spreads all about us — its energies, its opportunities, its beauties, its rare wonders.

There is no "dead past." It is as living as the air that we breathe, because it helps us to breathe better and freer. New occasions and new duties teach new traditions. Tradition is the path that we have grooved, or the mark that we have left behind, to remind others that someone passed that way.

Every hour that you live is a challenge. Every man or woman with whom you meet and talk is also a challenge. What you do about these things is the tradition that you create. We live by traditions. Each of us is a link in the tradition that knits history, formulates our literature and art, and from which all our political liberties have been born, nurtured and made vital.

New traditions are merely new links to be attached by writers of history so that an understanding idea may be grasped of the forward march of events of civilization itself.

So, you see, to kill a tradition is impossible. As soon as it becomes old, and established, it merely holds its hand for the new — it becoming old, in time! No wonder traditions become sacred to us and endear us to them. They are as deathless as memory. Each is an unbreakable cord, bound into the wood of time.

THE FOOLISH QUARREL
'Twas such a silly little thing
That started them to quarreling;
She wished to go, he wished to stay,
And both had lived an anxious day,
So, ere they knew it, words were said
Which set their cheeks to flaming red.

She taunted him with follies gone,
Her selfishness he dwelt upon,

The flames of anger hotter grew,

"I'm done!" cried she; cried he,

"I'm through!"

She stamped her foot upon the floor,

And he went out and slammed the door.

Then all the ills of foolish pride

Jumped in these lovers to divide,

With cunning whispering and smart

They plied their most malicious art

Until that hour of needless strife

Had torn asunder man and wife.

TWAS SUCH A SILLY LITTLE THING

Which set them both to quarreling.

Now past repair the wreckage lies.

"How silly!" everybody cries.

Yet world-wide over tales like this

Have told the end of wedded bliss.

Col. Geo. G. Briggs, Chairman of the Michigan Commission on Gettysburg Monuments, spent several days here last week, looking after the erection of the monuments from that State. The location of the monument to Gen. Custer's Michigan Brigade was changed to a site on lands of Wellington J. Swope near the cavalry shaft. The new position is a commanding one and the handsome monument which will cost $5,400 will be plainly visible from Cemetery Hill. The Memorial Association has purchased the position.

Bullets Put On Teriffic
Second Half But Lose To
Undefeated Tigers 48-36

One of the strongest second halves ever put on by a Gettysburg College football team just fell short as Wittenberg University carried off a 48-36 verdict over the Bullets Saturday afternoon in Springfield, O., before a capacity crowd of 7,500 fans.

The tall band of Bullets who made the nine-hour bus trip to Tigerville were far from disgraced. In fact Coach Gene Haas and his 21 ball players who played the game should receive plenty of praise for a job well done. Wittenberg played unlimited substitution, utilizing the services of a defensive unit and an offensive unit. Both first teams went the distance. On the other hand, because of the small number of players, Haas was able to substitute but one, two or three men at a time.

ALL PLAY BRILLIANTLY

To single out a few outstanding Gettysburg players would be unfair. It was a team effort from start to finish. Wittenberg, rated third in the nation in passing, got off but three long aerials to boost its passing yardage to 214. The four Bullet passers connected for 264 yards. The Tigers doubled teamed Dale Boyd and Ken Snyder all afternoon, but still the duo collected six tosses for 123 yards. Phil Parsons and Barry Gruber managed to slip past the defense for an additional eight catches for 97 yards and one TD. Snyder also caught three two-point conversion tosses.

Rick Taylor, Boyd and Parsons ran the Tiger defense ragged as they picked up 167 yards on 19 carries for a 8.8 yard average per carry. Don Enders, Junior quarterback who has seen limited action all year, was pressed into duty due to the injuries to Jim Ward and Vance Johnston. His performance was that of a season veteran.

Enders completed 11 of 24 passes for 175 yards and one TD. He caught two aerials for 31 yards and because of the lack of numbers among the Bullets, went in on defense to help bolster the secondary.

Pat Noonan, Irv Strohecker, Lloyd Grumbine, Roger Casciani and Ron Brentzel turned in another 50 minute or better performance on the line. They received solid backing from Jay Miller, John Morgan, John Hiltz, Dick Lardner and Rod Kuhns.

BULLETS SCORE FIRST

Gettysburg had the Ohio Conference champions on ends the first time it got its hands on the ball. After Ken Snyder returned a Charlie Green punt four yards to the Gettysburg 49, the Bullets went to work. Taylor hit Parsons for 16 yards and Ward landed a 15-yarder in the hands of Gruber. Ward, on the keeper, dashed for 11 more yards and the ball was resting on the Wittenberg one. Ward then banged the center of the line for the first score with 4:04 gone by in the game.

The Tigers bounced right back on the first play from scrimmage following the kickoff. Ace hurler Charlie Green connected with Bob Cherry for 80 yards and Jim Rendler booted the placement to put the Tigers in front for good with 10:44 remaining in the first quarter.

In the second period, the Tigers tallied three more times on John Barsala's 10-yard dash up the middle, a 30-yard Green to Jim Roediger aerial and Jack Morefield's nine-yard jaunt off the left side of the line. Wittenberg led 28-6 at the half.

The Tigers continued their pace in the opening minutes of the third quarter and led 35-6 on Barsala's two-yard plunge with 10:01 remaining in the stanza.

START TO MOVE

It was here that Gettysburg started its move. The Bullets took the kickoff and marched 66 yards on 11 plays with Don Enders connecting with Phil Parsons from 11 yards out. Enders then tossed to Ken Snyder for the two extra points.

Gettysburg trailed 35-14 as the period came to a close, but the Bullets were in possession of the ball on the Wittenberg 26. Reed Ernst recovered a Barsala fumble back on the Gettysburg 19 to set up the drive. Five plays and 1:37 into the final quarter, Rick Taylor bolted off right guard from one yard out to make it 35-20.

Each team followed with two quick touchdowns. Wittenberg took the kickoff and drove 63 yards on four plays with Barsala going over from the 15. On the second play from scrimmage after the Tiger kickoff, Dale Boyd turned in a tremendous exhibition of running. Boyd took a handoff from Enders and on the end-around squeezed past four defenders on the right side, galloped down the sidelines and outdistanced defensive end Jim Warden on the five and moved into the end zone for a 71-yard TD run.

MORE QUICK SCORES

Again Wittenberg took the kickoff and marched 80 yards on 10 plays with Barsala bolting over 13 wins each.

from the one. Gettysburg had held the Tigers on downs on their own nine yard line, but an offside penalty against the Bullets gave Wittenberg a first down on the fourth.

Not to be outdone, Enders went to work again following the kickoff. He and Snyder fired seven straight passes completing four to put the ball on the Wittenberg four. Taylor bashed in for one yard and Parsons came through with his second TD on a three-yard around right end. The drive covered 73 yards on nine plays. The score came with 1:37 remaining in the game and Wittenberg ran out the clock on dives up the middle.

John Barsala turned in an outstanding job for the winners as he time and again picked up the necessary yardage for first downs. The big fullback also added to his scoring record as he bolted into the end zone four times. The win gave Wittenberg its second straight undefeated season as they finished the year with an 8-0-1 record. The loss snapped a four-game Bullet winning streak but Gettysburg is still sporting a 5-4 record. The Orange and Blue will be out to make it a winning season when they battle Temple in the season's finale next Saturday afternoon on Memorial Field.

EAGLES BOW TO COWBOYS ON SUNDAY

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Don Meredith's accurate passing picked the Philadelphia Eagles Secondary to pieces and sparked the Dallas Cowboys to a 27-20 National Football victory Sunday. The Eagles now are in sixth place in the Eastern Division. That would be Texas vs. Navy in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas, pitting the No. 1 and No. 2 nationally ranked elevens against each other. The mighty Longhorns already are in, but Army might put a crimp in the hopes of the Cotton Bowl officials by upsetting the Middies in their traditional service game at Year's Day.

James MARLOW Reports

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Russians, trying to be tough, have become a cause for worry in a way they never intended. They have created doubts about their judgment, even in their own interests.

In three separate episodes in the past 13 months they have tried to stiff-arm the United States in ways indicating they didn't think their actions through. In short, they have been erratic.

In two of these cases, by failing to anticipate the possible American reactions, they suffered international embarrassment. In the third neither the United States nor Russia came smelling like a rose.

"PLAYING BY EAR"

They put missiles in Cuba, stopped American military trucks on the Autobahn in East Germany, and arrested Yale Prof. Frederick C. Barghoorn, a 52-year-old expert on Soviet affairs who has made six trips to Russia.

Barghoorn, back home Sunday, put it this way to explain the unexplainable Russian performance in arresting him: "The Soviets will embark on a policy, more or less, feeling their way, even playing it by ear, so to speak."

This is a disturbing realization for in all three cases events could have taken a different turn with terrible consequences. The missile adventure or the blockade could have progressed into shooting and then into war. GRIM POSSIBILITIES

For instance: If President Kennedy, instead of telling Premier Khrushchev to yank his missiles out of Cuba or else, felt the missile danger was too immediate even for this short delay and ordered action at once against Cuba.

Or if, when the Russians blockaded the Autobahn because American troops refused to leave the trucks to be counted, Kennedy, fed up, sent tanks to smash the blockade, even if it meant a fiery showdown.

Khrushchev withdrew his missiles. It was an ignominious defeat. The Russians let the trucks through even though the Americans persisted in refusing to descend to be counted.

"NO CLEAR VICTORY"

The Russians claimed they counted the troops anyway, when they got out to walk around. Nevertheless, they backed down from the principle of their demand. Kennedy, on the other hand, did nothing to break the blockade.

Neither side could claim any clear victory in this one except that the Russians had created an ugly situation, which could have become a dangerous one, and wound up being a nuisance.

But both situations create a basic question about their judgment:

Kennedys To Have Best Hotel Suite

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — President and Mrs. Kennedy will occupy a $75-a-day hotel suite Wednesday night while Vice President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson will have a suite with a $100 price tag.

A spokesman for Hotel Texas explained that the arrangements committee believed that the suite selected for the Kennedys "has brighter colors and would be more to the liking of the Kennedys."

The two-bedroom, three-bath and sitting-room suite for the Kennedys is decorated in Chinese modern.

The Will Rogers Suite, which the Johnsons will occupy, features Western pictures.

Neither the Johnsons nor the Kennedys will pay for the hotel accommodations. It's hotel policy, an official explained.

Captain's Son Is Arrested In Raid

ASHLAND, Ky. (AP) — No exceptions, said Police Capt. Harold Rush, as he led the Ashland Police in a fifth consecutive week of crackdowns on violations of the state's Sunday-closing law.

Among employees arrested in a discount store Sunday was Terry Rush, 19, the captain's son.

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Gustavo Diaz Ordaz has accepted the presidential nomination of the Institutional Revolutionary party (PRI) and thus is almost certain to be elected president of Mexico next year.

The opposition party in Mexico is overshadowed by the long-dominant PRI.

Diaz Ordaz, 52, said he would carry on the policies of President Adolfo Lopez Mateos. He resigned last week as interior minister.

ment: Why start something they weren't prepared to finish or without realizing, in the case of Cuba, they could suffer an almost disgusting defeat?

The best that can be said for them is that they acted impulsively, which is about the worst that can be said about a nation's handling of its foreign affairs.

MAY EXPECT MOVE

But even these crises might have been worth the anxiety if, after them, there was reason to think the Russians henceforth would act more thoughtfully.

But there's no reason to think there will not be some new and grotesque adventure tomorrow for, after the Autobahn incidents, the Russians arrested Barghoorn on a charge of spying. This seemed completely impulsive or stupid.

For this reason: On Saturday they turned him loose and sent him home after Kennedy publicly declared the professor was not a spy and indicated his detention might wreck the five-year-old American-Soviet cultural program.

If Barghoorn had been spying, and they had the goods on him, as they said they did, they could have achieved an international triumph by proving it publicly to make a liar of Kennedy.

The fact they freed the professor so quickly is good evidence they had nothing on him in the first place. Barghoorn denied he had spied.

Barghoorn Cautious About Answering Questions On His Arrest And Release By Reds

By THOMAS M. STEWART
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — "I'm working on my book and I hope I'll have a period of quiet after this," says Frederick C. Barghoorn, home from the Soviet Union where he was jailed as a spy.

Arrested Oct. 31 on an espionage charge, the 52-year-old Yale professor was imprisoned in Moscow until Saturday.

Then the Soviet Union, citing the personal concern expressed by President Kennedy, announced it was expelling Barghoorn. He was hustled aboard an airliner and flown to London. Sunday a second flight carried him to New York and a chartered plane brought him to New Haven.

VISITS MOTHER

He was taken to the apartment of Mrs. Elizabeth Barghoorn, his 80-year-old mother. Barghoorn, a bachelor, lives next door.

At a news conference Sunday night, Barghoorn read a statement about "my unpleasant experience."

He allowed only a few minutes of questions. He refused to answer, or replied cautiously, to questions about details of his arrest, confinement and release.

He said he would withhold a number of details "until I have had an opportunity to fully acquaint myself with the views and information of the appropriate officials in Washington."

RED CHARGES

The Russians, Barghoorn said, accused him of gathering intelligence during his employment in the U.S. Embassy in Moscow in the 1940s and on six trips he has made to the Soviet Union since 1947. Soviet studies are Barghoorn's specialty as a professor of political science. He has written several books on the Soviet Union and was gathering material for another when he was arrested.

The climate of suspicion in Russia is such, he said, that "one can be accused of conducting intelligence activity merely by walking down the street — especially if one has hostile intentions against the Soviet state; hostile, that is, in the opinion of the appropriate Soviet authorities."

DENIES CHARGES

He denied that the Russians had any basis for accusing him of spying.

They knew he was going to try and determine how public opinion is formed in the Soviet Union, Barghoorn said, and could have refused him a visa.

"There are many inexplicable and mysterious aspects of this episode," he said. "I shall probably never know why the Soviet government decided to take an action which by non-Soviet standards was so strange and indeed bizarre."

Barghoorn declined to name the prison in which he was held or to tell almost anything about his experiences as a prisoner. But when asked if he underwent much questioning, he replied "all the time."

"WELL TREATED"

Asked about psychological or physical pressures used on him, he answered:

"I think that within the terms of their system I was well treated."

On the flight to New York Barghoorn celebrated with a shot of vodka and some caviar.

"I think it all came out for the best," he said during the

COAT 'GROWS' WITH MOTHER

NEW YORK (AP) — Considering the number of years women have been becoming mothers, it is odd that fashion has just now gotten around to designing a coat with a family plan.

Still, better late than never.

This oversight is not entirely the apparel industry's fault. Despite a few centuries with which to work on the problem, women have only recently broken down Victorian notions that ladies should retire from view as soon as their expansion plans are obvious.

Actually, the revolution of social attitudes towards pregnancy has occurred largely during the past decade when career women stubbornly stuck to their jobs through thin to thick.

And, needing to be even more chic than usual to avoid criticism from associates with archaic views, they demanded and got innovations in maternity-wear.

The old kangaroo hole in the skirt and the telltale coolie jacket or smock lost out to A-lines, shifts, stretch fabric sportswear, even bathing suits.

SHORT USE

The coat got short shrift. Thrifty women hated to make this major wardrobe investment for a few months' wear, especially since there would soon be medical bills and another little mouth to feed.

SAYS LINCOLN

True, the slaves legally became free men because of a constitutional amendment enacted by the victors in the Civil War. But because of the connivance and, in a sense, the treason of greedy men who had no sympathy with Mr. Lincoln's plea, "With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right as God gives us to see the right, let us bind up the nation's wounds . . . do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace." North and South were estranged for generations, Negroes remained in economic and social bondage and thus overlords in all sections of the country forged upon themselves chains of servitude to idolatries of power, of race and of wealth. The "new birth of freedom" was virtually stillborn.

"We who, a century after Lincoln, are among the survivors of two world wars and live in dread of a final and suicidal one find the Gettysburg Address hauntingly contemporary. In World War I millions gave that 'last full measure of devotion' that the world might be made 'safe for democracy'; what happened? Tens of millions perished in World War II fighting under the banner of the four freedoms, freedom of speech, or worship, freedom from want, from fear, yet in today's cold war all four are unfinished business."

ERROR PERSISTS

"The fundamental error in appraising the human dilemma has persisted down through our own times. Freedom in an absolute sense is an illusion; it does not exist anywhere. The laws of nature, the requirements of society, the varying physical and mental endowments received from parents—these and other factors place drastic limitations upon man's freedom. Only the ruthless or the naive complain about this fact of life. Upon it depends the progress of civilization as the alternative to the law of the jungle. Freedom construed as unbridled license leads inevitably to cruelty and injustice; conducted on an international scale its end is the suicide of the human race."

"Today in our own land there are many noble souls who have dedicated themselves at great personal sacrifice to the unfinished task of assuring freedom and justice for all. We honor them even as those who died at Gettysburg."

NITTANY LIONS POINTING FOR PITT CONTEST

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Coach Rip Engle and his 7-2 Penn State football team can see no farther than next Saturday and traditional rival, the sixth ranked Panthers of Pittsburgh.

Even though bowl talk is starting to spread among the Nittany Lions supporters, Engle won't comment on prospects.

True to the mores of his coaching profession, he keeps himself occupied with next week's opponent.

PROMISES GREAT GAME

That's not much of a task when the foe is arch-rival Pitt.

Even then, Engle won't do much talking. His only comment was:

"It will be another great game. They're a tremendous team and I'm glad we can play them."

Penn State recorded its seventh win of the year Saturday by whipping the out-manned Crusaders from Holy Cross, 28-14.

ENGLE PLEASED

End Don Caum and Fullback Dave McNaughton, who had carried the ball only once before Saturday, each scored two touchdowns.

Holy Cross rallied against Penn State reserves to score twice and keep the final outcome respectable.

Engle was pleased with the victory, more so than usual because he was able to give his walking wounded a rest in preparation for the Panthers.

KILLED IN CRASH

SHAMOKIN, Pa. (AP)—One man was killed and another hospitalized Saturday when their car hit a stone pillar on Route 25, about four miles south of Shamokin.

Killed was Walter J. Wilk, 56, Shamokin. State police said he was a passenger in an auto driven by Edward J. Janoskie, 29, Shamokin, who is in fair condition at a hospital here.

"MISPRINTED" STAMPS TO PAY FOR EDUCATION

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. and Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller have laughed off as rumors reports they are expecting a baby.

COLUMNIST BETTY BEALE wrote in the Washington Sunday Star that there are rumors in Republican circles that Mrs. Rockefeller, whom the governor married earlier this year after both were divorced, was expecting.

The unidentified Bronx youth purchased 50 of the misprints for $2 on the first day of their issue, Feb. 28, 1962. Several weeks ago, he sold them to wholesale stamp dealer Julius Stolow of J. & H. Stolow, Ind. for $208 each.

Stolow said Sunday the young man "knew right away what he had" when he returned home from the U.N. with the stamps.

The misprinted stamps commemorate the U.N.'s housing and community facilities. But they are minus the black-imprinted words "Housing and Community facilities," which should be cornered on the left side, then continued halfway across the top.

GREAT ERROR

Also missing from the seven-color misprints are several areas of black shading on houses that make up most of the stamp's design.

H. Alexander Fraenkel, who publishes a journal for stamp dealers and collectors, said:

"The misprint is the greatest error since the Dag Hammarskjold (stamp) case."

"It's even greater for stamp collectors and dealers, because this error cannot be corrected by the U.S. Post Office Department."

"The stamps were printed by Harrison and Sons of London, and screened by its personnel in accordance with the usual rigid, careful British standards."

TO RAISE PRICE

Stolow said he sold most of the stamps to dealers for $275 each, suggesting that dealers resell them to collectors for $390 apiece. At that retail price the misprinted stamps will be sold for about $20,000.

A year ago the U.S. Post Office Department blasted the dreams of a few American collectors of making small fortunes by selling misprinted U.S. stamps bearing the likeness of Hammarskjold, the late U.N. secretary-general.

The department purposely misprinted thousands more of the four-cent stamps and deviated from the original misprints.

LAUGHS OFF BABY RUMORS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. and Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller have laughed off as rumors reports they are expecting a baby.

COLUMNIST BETTY BEALE wrote in the Washington Sunday Star that there are rumors in Republican circles that Mrs. Rockefeller, whom the governor married earlier this year after both were divorced, was expecting.

When the Rockefellers arrived here Sunday night for a two-day social and political visit, Rockefeller, a candidate for the GOP presidential nomination, was asked about the column.

"These rumors have been flying ever since we have been married," Rockefeller commented as both he and his wife laughed.

The governor has four living children by his first marriage. His wife also has four children by her first marriage.

Veteran Jet Pilot Killed In Crash

STONY CREEK, N.Y. (AP) — Exactly three months after he was plucked from the ocean by Russian fishermen, Capt. Hugh A. Levallee guided his jet fighter through clouds over the Adirondack Mountains and disappeared.

That was Saturday. His remains were found Sunday in the wreckage of his Massachusetts Air National Guard plane 13 miles west of Stony Creek. The plane had slammed into a mountain.

Levallee, 29, of Springfield, Mass., apparently had no chance to parachute, an Air Force spokesman said.

Three months ago, Levallee ejected from a disabled jet over the Atlantic. He was pulled from the water by the crew of a Russian fishing trawler.

Despite 40 objections, the Dobwalls magistrates issued a license for the new pub.

13,200 STATE EMPLOYEES GET PAY INCREASE

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Executive Board voted today to grant pay increases to some 13,200 commonwealth employees.

The reason for the move, the board said, is to make state pay scales comparable to private industry and federal government scales.

The Executive Board, headed by Gov. Scranton, is made up of cabinet officials. It is the state's administrative policy agency.

Total cost of all of the raises is estimated to be about $1.6 million for the remainder of the fiscal year, ending next June 30.

REVISE SCALES

Revisions in the salary scales will begin to take effect Nov. 22.

There are 512 classes of employees involved in the pay boost. In those classes there are 51,428 employees. Of that group, 13,227, mostly at the extreme top and bottom of the classes, will receive the raises.

The average increase is about 5 per cent. In some classes both the bottom and top ranges of pay scale have been increased. In other cases only the bottom has been raised.

Generally, the employee classes being raised are the lower paid employees.

HOSPITAL HELP

The largest single group receiving raises will be attendants in hospitals. There are 7,800 employees in that category, of which 4,100 will get raises.

The second largest group includes clerks, clerk-typists and clerk-stenographers. There are 11,459 such employees. Of those, some 3,000 will receive raises averaging about 5 per cent.

Plans for the raises were started under the previous administration of former Gov. David L. Lawrence, but were never actuated by the Executive Board.

Iraq had been in the throes of a week-long internal power struggle between moderate and extremist factions of the Ba'th party. Ba'thist leaders from Syria had gone to Iraq to help rally.

Aref pledged that he would carry out "the brotherly obligations to our sister Arab states, especially Syria and the United Arab Republic. We say to our beloved sister, Syria, that we will always be with her. We will carry out our obligations toward her."

TO AID SYRIA

The United Arab Republic, Iraq and Syria agreed in April to join in a federation, but the Ba'thists in Syria and Iraq rejected domination by Nasser and dropped Nasserites from their ruling councils. Nasser subsequently denounced the Ba'thists, especially those of Syria, and nothing came of the proposed federation.

Recently the Ba'thists in Iraq and Syria formed a united military command, began discussions of economic union and set political union as their ultimate goal.

Aref indicated that he wanted the Syrian-Iraqi military union to continue. He sent a message to the commander of the Syrian army brigade fighting Kurdish rebels in northern Iraq and assured the Syrian his brigade was "part of us."

They commandeered a taxi-cab and forced the driver to take them several blocks away where one debarked. A few blocks beyond, the other robber left the cab. Neither bothered to pay the fare.

KEYSTONE KOPS'

Mrs. Gurian, whose husband is a vice president of the Wall Street firm of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith, summed up the episode: "It was like a Keystone Kops comedy."

The $3 million gem robbery two weeks ago failed when the driver of the loot car couldn't cop with the old-style floor gear shift and abandoned the vehicle and gems.

In announcing his dismissal, the State Department said Otepka would stage a joint amphibious and airborne defense exercise in south Formosa starting Nov. 26.

Otepka has brought a charge from Sen. Strom Thurmond that the former security officer was "railroaded with methods characteristic of a police state."

In his weekly newsletter to constituents Sunday, the South Carolina Democrat said Otepka was dismissed because he told the truth to a Senate subcommittee.

Miss Reagan, 17, made a rope of bed sheets and a bed spread Sunday to enable Brown's four children and herself to escape from his burning home.

By telling the truth to a Senate committee, Thurmond said, "Mr. Otepka put his honor and loyalty to his country above institutional loyalty" — that is loyalty to the State Department.

To the moon: The Rev. Francis J. Heyden, S.J., director of Georgetown University's astronomical observatory, has urged continuation of the American Association of the Bonneauville CWV Auxiliary officers headed by Mrs. Rita McMaster.

Bonneauville Mayor Joseph Clabaugh presented the "keys of the city" to the national commander and his wife.

State Commander Riley spoke on increasing membership of the CWV and urged "every member to obtain a member" during the coming year.

Rev. Fr. Louis Forgeng praised the CWV for its service to the community and church. Richard Selby was master of ceremonies. Introduced as guests were Robert W. Fox, vice commander of the Albert J. Lentz Post of the American Legion; John Rutter, commander of the Columbia Catholic War Veterans, and William Pimonenti, commander of the Mechanicsburg CWV.

KENNEDY SEES FUTURE SPEED OF AIR TRAVEL

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Staff Writer

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—President Kennedy flies to Tampa today at 500 miles an hour to predict that the time is within sight when men will fly routinely through space at more than 15,000 miles an hour.

Kennedy produced this Buck Rogers vision at the start of a two-stage speech-making tour which he hopes will help him capture the South's most populous states — Florida and Texas — in 1964.

Flying to Tampa from his weekend headquarters at Palm Beach aboard his jet transport, Kennedy readily headlined futuristic forecasts for a ceremony marking the 50th anniversary of the first scheduled air service.

COMPARES TRAVEL

In his prepared text, the President contrasted the first commercial flight from Tampa to neighboring St. Petersburg, at a price of $5 a head, with current jet travel.

And, looking toward the decades ahead, he said that "within our sight, if not yet within our grasp, is the day when men will routinely fly through space at 25 times the speed of sound."

That would be more than 15,000 miles an hour.

Even by 1975, Kennedy said, "metroplanes" will be able to take off directly from the crowded center of one city and fly to another — even as airliners cross oceans and continents at 1,400 miles an hour.

The President said that the "pioneering spirit is still burning bright in this state and nation" and that America is ready to venture down a path "through the dark unknown that lies ahead."

BUSY SCHEDULE

Kennedy arranged a busy Florida itinerary, starting with a visit to the headquarters of the strike command at MacDill Air Force Base near Tampa. The President flies from Palm Beach to MacDill in late morning.

Before flying to Washington tonight, Kennedy will make five stops in Tampa and Miami — one an important foreign policy address at an evening dinner of the Inter-American Press Association.

Thursday, Kennedy will begin a three-day Texas swing that will take him to Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, San Antonio, Austin and the Johnson City ranch of Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson.

NATIONAL CWV

Martin Riley, Philadelphia, state commander of the Catholic War Veterans, installed the officers of the Bonneauville post headed by Commander Raymond Weishaar and the McSherrystown post headed by Cyril Weaver. Mrs. Alice Snyder, president of the 16th District of the CWV, was in charge of the installation of the Bonneauville CWV Auxiliary officers headed by Mrs. Rita McMaster.

Bonneauville Mayor Joseph Clabaugh presented the "keys of the city" to the national commander and his wife.

State Commander Riley spoke on increasing membership of the CWV and urged "every member to obtain a member" during the coming year.

HCT Schedules 'Advise-Consent'

The Harrisburg Community Theater will present "Advise and Consent" Saturday, Nov. 23 and the two following weekends, Nov. 27, 28, 30 and Dec. 5, 6, 7, with no performance on Thanksgiving Day. "Advise and Consent," written by Loring Mandel from the Pulitzer Prize winning book by Allen Drury, tells of the battle for the confirmation of a presidential appointment by the U. S. Senate, and the results of this battle on the lives of those involved.

Leading the cast are A. B. Derry as Senator Orrin Knox; Robert Patchen as Senator Brigham Anderson; Joseph Kilch as Senator Seabright Cooley.

Funeral services will be held at 4 p.m. Wednesday at Trinity Lutheran Church, Queen Lane near Germantown Ave.

Burial will be private in Evergreen Cemetery here at 11:30 a.m. Thursday with Dr. Harry F. Baughman, past president of the seminary, participating in the service.

TOKYO (AP)—Red China's National Congress held its second plenary session in Peking today. Sparse official news accounts suggested the Chinese may not be ready to disclose the state of their economic health.

When the congress opened Sunday it heard Vice Premier Li Fu-chun report on the 1963 economy and plans for 1964.

However, the official news and propaganda services did not report what Li said. The account of today's session said Vice Premier Li Hsien-nien reported on the 1963 draft state budget and planning for the 1964 budget, but again gave no details.

RANGOON, Burma (AP)—Burma's military government has rounded up 435 leading Communists.

The roundup began Friday after the breakdown of peace talks between the Communists and Gen. Ne Win's government. About 8,000 Communists have been waging civil war since Burma became independent 15 years ago.

CAIRO (AP)—Dismantling of the majestic twin temples of Abu Simbel on the Upper Nile will begin next May to save them from the waters of the Aswan high dam reservoir.

The Egyptian Ministry of Culture signed a contract with a consortium of five foreign companies. The consortium will move the 75 temples 75 feet above their present location and reconstruct them on the bank of the reservoir.

The work will cost $36 million, to be supplied by 47 countries. The United States and the United Arab Republic will be the biggest contributors.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Chinese Nationalist and American units will stage a joint amphibious and airborne defense exercise in south Formosa starting Nov. 26.

An announcement today said 20 amphibious ships, 3,000 troops and 100 aircraft of both countries would take part.

Baby Sitter Saves Charges In Fire

OVID, N.Y. (AP)—"Lord knows what would have happened if she hadn't been there," said Henry Brown of his baby sitter, Jo Anne Reagan.

Miss Reagan, 17, made a rope of bed sheets and a bed spread Sunday to enable Brown's four children and herself to escape from his burning home.

She tied one end to a heavy chair in a second-floor bedroom. Two children, Henry, 4, and Thomas, 2, clung to the rope and Miss Reagan lowered them 15 feet to the ground.

A neighbor, James Wyckoff, arrived and Miss Reagan lowered herself and notified firemen.

Wyckoff climbed the rope and rescued 5-month-old Edward Brown and 3-year-old Joanne. Brown and his wife were at work.

LAWYER SEES CONFLICTS IN CONSTITUTIONS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Parts of Pennsylvania's constitution appear to be in direct conflict with federal court decisions on legislative apportionment, says former Atty. Gen. William A. Schnader.

Speaking Friday to the annual meeting of the State Chamber of Commerce here, the 77-year-old Philadelphian pointed specifically to a section of the constitution which says no county may have more than one-sixth of the 50 state senators.

For practical purposes, that limits Philadelphia to eight senators.

"I am glad," declared Schnader, "that I do not have the responsibility of deciding at the current legislative session whether in reapportioning the senatorial districts, this section of our present constitution should be ignored."

SPECIAL SESSION

The Pennsylvania legislature is meeting now in special session to try and solve the thorny problem. If they fail to reapportion, the federal courts have threatened to do it for them.

According to the 1960 census, said Schnader, Philadelphia has 8.84 average senatorial districts according to population.

Schnader also pointed out that the Senate has districts ranging from 51,739 persons in Philadelphia's fourth district, to 553,134 in Delaware County.

This, he said, is illegal.

"The senatorial districts, as they exist at the moment, would certainly be stricken down by the Supreme Court of the United States."

SET ASIDE RULES

Turning to the House, Schnader contended that proposed reapportionment might "incur the possibility that the courts will set aside the legislature's apportionment and themselves re-apportion the state."

"The question before the legislature is very interesting, indeed," he declared, adding:

"Senators and representatives are sworn to obey the constitution of the United States and the constitution of Pennsylvania. Decisions of the federal courts indicate that portions of the constitution conflict with the 14th amendment of the constitution of the United States."

"Will the legislature recognize this conflict itself, or will it obey the constitution of Pennsylvania until it is overruled by a court decision?"

Schnader did not volunteer an answer.

HARRISBURG (AP) — The four licensed harness racing organizations in Pennsylvania have had their permits renewed and their racing dates for 1964 set by the state Harness Commission.

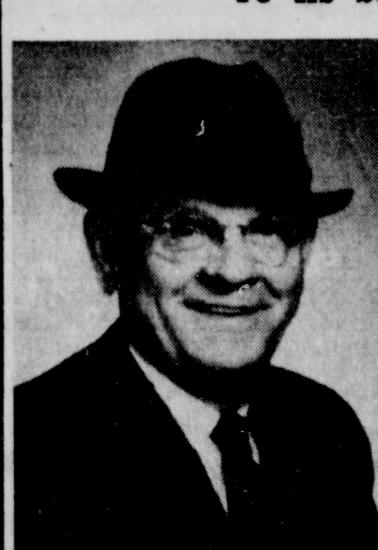

The commission announced this past weekend that it was renewing the licenses of the Liberty Bell Racing Association, Philadelphia; William Penn Racing Association, Bucks County; Washington Trotting Association, Washington County; Pocano Downs, Inc., Luzerne County.
